The Daily Courant.

Wednesday, June 27. 1705.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated June 30.

Vienna, June 17.

THE 14th the Emperor was present at the Procession made yearly by the Jesuites; but did not dine with them, nor make them a Present, as the late Emperor was wont to do. We have Advice from Hungary, that the Malecontents have besieg'd the Town of Gran with 12000 Men, and promise themselves they shall be Masters of it before the Danish Troops can joyn our Army. 100000 Florins which the Estates of upper Austria paid into the Treasury a few days ago, are remitted to General Rabutin in Transilvania. General Schlick is appointed to go Envoy extraordinary to Constantinople, to notify the Death of the Emperor Leopold, and the Accession of the present Emperor to the Throne; and 'tis talk'd that at his Return he will be made Commissary General of War.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated June 25.

Venice, June 12. The Electoress of Bavaria, return'd hither the 19th Instant from the Frontier of Tirol, but last from Padua. She is lodg'd in the House of Signior Treveno Agent of Bavaria: Signior Avogadno, a Merchant of this City, has paid her 300 Pistoles on the Part of the King of France. She keeps incognito, and 'tis talk'd she is some what indispos'd; which is not attributed so much to the Fatigues of her Journey, as to her Grief for her Misfortunes and Loss of her Baggage, which the Imperialists siez'd at Bolzano.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated June 25.

Ratisbon, June 15. The Princes Sons of the Elector of Bavaria, are treated with all good Usage at Munich, by the Emperor's Order; it appearing that they were no way concern'd in the Plot lately discover'd in that Electorate; and the 2 Eldest of those Princes, went a Hunting a few days ago, with General Gronsfeldt and several other Imperial Lords. The Count de Leuwenstein Wertheim, Governour of Bavaria for the Emperor, has fix'd his Residence at Munich in the Palace of the lately deceas'd Duke Maximilian of Bavaria. The Abbot of Furstenfeldt, whose Abbey is situate in Bavaria near to Ausburg, is expell'd from thence, and another Person is put into his Room. The Monastery of the Monks of the order of St. Bennet on the Frontier of Tirol, which was fortified and intrench'd round with 3 good Ditches, is demolish'd; and all the Artillery that was in it, is carried off, by order of his Imperial Majesty; because the Bavarian Conspirators design'd to make it a Place of Arms, and to draw together there 5000 Men to make a Diversion into Tirol.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated June 23.

Ratisbon, June 15. A few days ago the Cardinal de Lamberg receiv'd a new Commission from the Emperor, to confirm him in the Office of his Imperial Majesty's first Commissioner to the Diet. The Magistrates of the Town of Kempten, following the Example of those of Ausburg, have presented a Memorial to the Diet, desiring some Relief, in consideration of the Losses they have sustain'd, and which they make to amount to 340000 Florins. The Towns of Memmingen and Nordlingen, appear likewise to have a Design to present Memorials on the same Subject.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated June 23.

Ratisbon, June 18. The Estates of the Circle of Bavaria have broken up and are gone home, without resolving to do any thing more than what they formerly offer'd; which in all appearance will not satisfy his Imperial Majesty. 'Tis commonly talk'd Part of the Troops of Passau, and the Garrison of this Town, will remain here; but some are of Opinion it will not be easily granted, least that Example should give Occasion to other Members of our Circle to keep their Contingents of Troops at home. The Emperor has written agen to the Circle of Bavaria, to press them to cause their Contingent of Troops to march to Fribourg. The Bailywick of Munich is oblig'd to furnish great Sums of Money to the Emperor.

From the Amst. & Leid. Gazette, dated June 30.

Ratisbon, June 22. The Troops of Passau, Saltzbach, Lobcowits, and some other of the Circle of Bavaria, in Number 740 Men, pass'd in Review here the 20th, and are to march to day for Fribourg. The 1500 Men the Archbishop of Saltzbourg furnishes, and those of Freisingen, are also on the March to Fribourg by the Way of Mundelheim. We have Advice, that the Bavarian Secretary Neusonner, is remov'd from Inspruch to Gratz in Stiria: And from Munich 'tis advis'd, that 2 of the Princes Sons of the Elector of Bavaria, are indispos'd, as is also the young Princess their Sister; and that General Gronsvelt is on his Departure from thence, to serve in the Army on the upper Rhine, his Baggage being already gone.

From the Leid. & Amst. Gaz. dated June 25 & 26.

Ausburg, June 22. The 19th of this Month, a French Officer who was Prisoner in our Town-house, and broke out some days before, was brought back agen under a good Guard. A Carrier was siez'd t'other day at Wallerstein, who had undertaken to carry to a Place in Bavaria call'd Pferschen near this Town, a great Sum of Money, sent from Brussels for the Malecontents of Bavaria. The Danish Troops that are to go to Hungary, are to embrak on the Danube to morrow or next day.

Franckfort, June 21. The Letters from Swabia tell us, that there have been found in the Mint at Munich 450000 Florins. that were hid there. 'Tis reported the Circle of Bavaria is order'd to furnish their Contingent of 10000 Men compleat.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated June 25.

Copenhagen, June 15. The King is at present at Fredericksberg. The Adminiftrator of the Dutchy of Holstein, having taken upon him the Title of Coadjutor of Lubeck, has signified the same to the Count of Ecle, the Emperor's Minister residing in Hamburg, and at the same time declar'd, that unless this Title of Coadjutor of Leipsick be added to his other Titles in the Superscription of Letters directed to him, he will not receive them, but return them unopen'd; but 'tis hop'd the Emperor, having occasion for our Troops, will for his part in this Affair do nothing thing to the Prejudice of our King. The Heer Kettenburg is return'd from Stockholm to Sleſwick, with the King of Sweden's Inſtructions not to meddle in the Diſpute between the Duke and Dutcheſs Dowager of Holſtein. Our King and that Duke cannot yet agree upon a Place for ſetling all Matters in Diſpute between them, purſuant to the Treaty of Travendael; our King propoſing Flensburg, and the Duke Hamburg.

A Treatiſe of the firſt Principles of Laws in General, of their Nature and Deſign, and of the Interpretation of them. Tranſlated out of French. Being a proper Introduction to the New Inſtitute of the Imperial, or Civil Law, with Notes, &c. lately publiſhed.

Remarks upon Mr. Clark's Sermons Preach'd at St. Paul's againſt Hobbs, Spinoſa, and other Atheiſts; wherein 'tis demonſtrated: 1. That Mr. C. by the Sceptical Hypotheſis he imploys, abſolutely cuts off all poſſible Means of knowing the Nature, or of proving the Exiſtance of the one only True God againſt Hobbs, Spinoza, or any other Atheiſt whatever. 2. That in Reference to God, or Spirits, he reduces Humane Underſtanding, to the moſt Incurable State of Scepticiſm. Theſe Two Particulars are handled and prov'd Geometrically: 3. The Reaſons are produced which convince the Author of this Paper, that thoſe Sermons do rather Eſtabliſh than Deſtroy, do rather Confirm than Confute Spinoza's Hypotheſis, 4to. Printed for Jonathan Robinſon at the Golden Lion in St. Paul's Church-yard. Price Stitch'd 6.

Dr. William Read, Her Majeſty's principal Oculiſt, Couch'd on May the 24th, 1705. The Wife of Mr. Thos Willis, a Relation of the late famous Dr. Willis's at Oxford, and inſtantly brought her to perfect Sight, which Cure is very much taken notice of in the Univerſity, ſhe being 66 Years of Age, and 15 Years Blind: He alſo Couch'd at the ſame place with the like Succeſs, Mrs Stacy, Mr. William Cook, Mrs. Sherlock, Mrs. Such, Mrs. Day, Mrs. Simms; with many more cured of the moſt difficult Diſtempers incident to the Eyes, (too many here to be inſerted) which may ſatisfie the Publick, that Dr. Read is as capable of ſerving the Nation as Monſieur Girard, or any Foreigner whatever. Note, Dr. Read daily cures the Poor, and Soldiers, and Seamen in Her Majeſty's Service gratis.

The Famous Collick Water (ſo often mention'd in the Gazette, particularly in Thurſdays, April 26.) is ſo well known throughout England, for giving ſpeedy Relief in caſes of Wind, Wind-Collick, Vapours of both kinds, Sinking of the Spirits, Stitches and Pains in the ſides, Gripes, Fluxes, Vomiting or Looſneſs, and all Indiſpoſitions and Weakneſs of Stomach and Bowels (immediately digeſting any thing that offends) that the Author thinks it would leſſen it to ſay more of it, therefore, only gives further notice that 'tis continued to be ſold at theſe four places, (viz.) Old Mah's Coffee-houſe at Charing-Croſs, Alice's at the Parliament-houſe, Richard's at Temple-bar, and at Clark's Stationer in Burchin-Lane, at 2 s. 6 d. a Bottle. 'Tis not purging, but a rich Cordial pleaſant to take at any time; and of excellent uſe to carry to Sea, being an immediate help in Fluxes, Gripes, &c. When once try'd none would be without it. Beware of Counterfeits that under other Names imitate it, and live only by thus pyrating upon one and another; The True is ſold only at the 4 places before named.

Notwithſtanding divers Plaiſters, &c. are publiſh'd pretending a Cure for Corns, which are generally made to imitate that noble and effectual Plaiſter (publiſh'd by the firſt Author) which not only preſently removeth the Anguiſh thereof, but likewiſe deadneth them to the root, inſenſibly and ſafely, being diſtinguiſh'd with a Seal, having this Motto, Aut inds, aut facit. To be had only of Mrs. Scampton at the Angel in Cornhill over againſt the Mermaid Tavern, at Mr. Osborn's at the Roſe and Crown under St. Dunſtan's Church in Fleet-ſtreet, and at Mr. Girard's at the three Flower-de-Luces near Northumberland-Houſe in the Strand. Toy-ſhops, at 1 s. per Box, ſeal'd up with Directions.
